CHAPMAN & HALL'S FIRST AUTUMN LIST, 1915.

THE LITERARY MAN'S NEW TESTAMENT

The Books arranged in Chronological order, with Introductory Essays and Annotations.

By W. L. COURTNEY, M.A., LL.D.

Author of "The Literary Man's Bible." Demy 8vo, with Map, 10s. 6d. net.

"On fundamental issues he has brought to bear a sterling commonsense, which we like to consider a peculiarly English attitude, and which is certainly in marked contrast with some of the theories which have come to us from Germany."—Spectator.

TIGER SLAYER BY ORDER

(DIGBY DAVIES, late Bombay Police).

By C. E. GOULDSBURY.

Author of "Tigerland." With numerous illustrations. Demy 8vo, 7s. 6d. net.

Mr. Gouldsbury's book can best be described as an auto-biographical narrative of the adventures and experiences of a Deputy Inspector General of the Indian Police, who also held the unique office of Tiger Slayer to the Government of Bombay. His adventures and experiences are so full and varied, and his descriptions of the appearance and habits of the various animals he encountered so thorough in detail, that the book cannot fail to attract as much attention and prove as valuable as the author's previous work on Tigerland.

SOLDIERS' STORIES OF THE WAR

Edited by WALTER WOOD.

Author of "Men of the North Sea," "North Sea Fishers and Fighters," &c. With 20 illustrations by A. C. MICHAEL. Large Crown 8vo, 6s. net.

These are the actual stories of the principal engagements in the Great War told by combatants themselves who have returned wounded from the battlefields or battleships. Every engagement down to Neuve Chapelle has its own story, and all are among the most graphic accounts of the conflict that have appeared anywhere.

MORALS IN EVOLUTION:

A STUDY IN COMPARATIVE ETHICS.

By L. T. HOBHOUSE.

Third and Revised Edition. Demy 8vo, 10s. 6d. net.

Professor Hobhouse's book, which has become the standard work on the subject, has been entirely re-written and revised, and reprinted in one volume. Of the first edition the Standard said:—

"In this elaborate work of one of the most brilliant of the younger school of Oxford philosophers . . . a more serious attempt than we have had for some time is made to deal with the difficulties of the subject. . . . Mr. Hobhouse is so ingenious and learned a guide that he can always be followed with attention."

THE LIFE OF THE DUKE OF MARLBOROUGH

By EDWARD THOMAS.

Author of "George Borrow," "Richard Jefferies." Illustrated. Demy 8vo, 10s. 6d. net.

A WOMAN IN THE WILDERNESS

Messrs. Bell's New Books

"Here is a Book to be Studied"

says the Times in a long review of a remarkable series of letters by working women on their experiences of Maternity. These letters (there are 160 of them) have been collected by the "Women's Co-operative Guild," and have just been published under the title of

MATERNITY

LETTERS FROM WORKING WOMEN.

"The letters are 'human documents,' (says the Times) straightforward, outspoken, and quiet. . . the book is thoroughly original, thoroughly first-hand."

TALES BY POLISH AUTHORS. Transl. by Else C. M. Benecke. Cr. 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d. net.

Masterpieces by four of the most distinguished contemporary Polish writers, three of whom have never yet appeared in English.

STILL MORE RUSSIAN PICTURE TALES. By Valery Carrick. Translated by Nevill Forbes. With 140 illustrations.

Uniform with "Picture Tales from the Russian" and "More Russian Picture Tales." Oblong Imp. 16mo, coloured picture boards, 2s. 6d. net.

"There must be many people who are anxious just now to get a pleasant glimpse of the Russian people than the horrors of War or the 'Brothers Karamazov' can give them, and no more delightful way could be recommended than is afforded by these little books."—THE DAILY NEWS.

"For pure charm they rival the best of Grimm."—THE BOOKMAN.

LIFE OF VISCOUNT BOLINGBROKE. By Arthur Hassall, Student of Christ Church. Cr. 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d. net.

The only complete biography of Bolingbroke at present in print. So much new light has been thrown recently on this much-discussed statesman, that readers of this new life will find many current opinions in need of revision, if not in danger of revolution.

AN AMERICAN GARLAND. Being a Collection of Ballads relating to America, 1563—1759. Edited with Introduction and Notes by C. H. Firth, Regius Professor of Modern History in the University of Oxford. 8vo, Roxburgh binding, 3s. 6d. net.

Contemporary ballads relating to the discovery and colonisation of America are of the greatest rarity. The ballads in this collection trace the history of America through the medium of contemporary popular opinion from the Discovery to the Conquest of Canada. Many of them are now for the first time reprinted, and some, from the author's collection, have been hitherto unknown.

OXFORD POETRY, 1915. Edited by G. D. H. C. and T. W. E. Cr. 8vo, boards, 2s. 6d. net; paper, 1s. net.

Sequel to "Oxford Poetry, 1910-13," and "Oxford Poetry, 1914."

THE WAR AND RELIGION. By Alfred Loisy. Translated by Arthur Galton. Cr. 8vo, sewed, 1s. 6d. net.

The great French Modernist urges that Christendom has failed continuously and increasingly to carry out the principles laid down by Christ. The brotherhood of man is an ideal to be achieved; Jesus presented it as an accomplished fact. He denounces the failure of the Pontificate in the present crisis and points to an ideal of exalted and humane patriotism which can go far beyond Christian practice of to-day.

SYRIA AS A ROMAN PROVINCE. By E. S. Bouchier, M.A., author of "Life and Letters in Roman Africa," and "Spain under the Roman Empire." With a Map and plate of coins. Cr. 8vo, cloth, 6s. net.

The latest addition to this series of monographs on the Roman Provinces, but considerably fuller than the preceding volumes.

ANALYSIS OF MILL'S PRINCIPLES OF POLITICAL ECONOMY. With Test Questions. By L. Oldershaw, M.A. Cr. 8vo, sewed, 2s. 6d. net.

Designed to supply a badly felt need, this analysis is not a cram book, but condenses the insufferable prolixity of Mill's 1,000 pages to 150 pages without obscuring the argument.

HISTORICAL GEOGRAPHY OF ENGLAND. By Maud Holliday, Lecturer at Dudley Training College. Fcap. 8vo, boards, 2s. net.

One of the very few text books on this new subject.

SYMPHONIES. Poems on the four movement plan. By E. H. W. M. Crown 8vo, art paper wrapper, 2s. net.

An experiment in poetry on the analogy of musical composition.

NEW POPULAR EDITION. JUST PUBLISHED.
2s. 6d. net.

SELECTED PASSAGES FROM THE WORKS OF BERNARD SHAW.

Chosen by CHARLOTTE F. SHAW.

With a Photogravure of the Bust of Bernard Shaw by Rodin.

294 pages, small crown 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d. net, postage 4d.

A few copies of the 1st edition, linen & gold, 5s. net, postage 4d.

The selections are drawn from Mr. Shaw's entire works up to 1914, and to some extent from his unpublished correspondence, and are classified under 135 heads, arranged alphabetically, beginning with "The Actor," and ending with "The Young and the Old." In length they run from a two-line aphorism, on Reason: "The man who listens to Reason is lost: Reason enslaves all whose minds are not strong enough to master her," to three pages on "Woman and the Sex Initiative," and up to seven pages on "The Englishman and the Comic Spirit."

There is now no excuse for ignorance of the works of this much-discussed, praised, and abused writer.
